

PCRG Trip to Sydney

Two decades has “almost” passed since I broke the Australian “all comers” record for the Half Marathon. “All comers” refers to the fact that my 61.11 remains the fastest Half Marathon run on Australian soil (well ok.....bitumen).

Top 10 All Time can be viewed here.

I have therefore nominated the May 18 smh half marathon as an interstate event we can target "as a group" and at the same time be there with me to celebrate my record ticking past the 20 year mark. I'll be the race announcer on the day.

The smh half is a great event and at a time of year when Sydney is at it's finest.

You can enter here and PCRG team password is.....wait for it..... “PCRG”.

Sheraton on the Park is just across from the start and is reasonably priced if you book in advance.

